

Food options within walking distance of campus

If you'd like to find a restaurant for lunch or dinner, Saint Louis University and the Grand Center have many fine eateries. Here are a few worth checking out.

- 1 Busch Student Center ($) Where the conference is held... Includes Au Bon Pain (sandwiches, soups), Salsaritas (Mexican made-to-order), and Grand Market (including Chick-Fil-A, pizza, sushi, and deli).
 - 2 Vitos Italian ($$) Lunch buffets, Italian cuisine, and bar.
 - 3 Triumph Grill ($$) Restaurant directly adjacent to the motorcycle museum, Known for its gourmet burgers and American cuisine.
 - 4 The Fountain on Locust ($$) Old-fashioned soda shop, known mostly for their deserts, they also serve from a limited dinner menu.
 - 5 The Field House ($$) Sports bar and grill, with bar and sandwiches & burgers.
 - 6 Grand Center District, at the Fox Theatre.
 - Kota Wood Fire Grill* ($$$) American cuisine.
 - The Best Steak House* ($$) Steakhouse
 - Jazz at the Bistro* ($$$) Jazz club and restaurant.
 - 7 The City Diner ($$) Old-fashioned diner with friendly lunch-time atmosphere and full bar.
 - 8 West end of campus, off West Pine
 - Subway, in the DeMattias Building* ($) On-campus dining, doesn't participate in Subway's deals.
 - Café Ventana* ($) Quiet study atmosphere, lots of students, coffee house with sandwich menu. Has free wi-fi.
 - Scottish Arms* ($$$) Scottish pub and restaurant, with matching cuisine. Off Laclede & Sarah. Lindell past Vandeventer has McDonald's, Rally's, Arby's, Subway, Domino's, et c.
 - 9 Pickleman's ($) Made-to-order hot & cold subs and pizzas. Free wi-fi.
 - 10 Humphrey's Bar and Grill ($$) Typical bar atmosphere & menu. Open late.
 - 11 Diablitos ($$) Mexican street food cuisine with salsa bar. More than a hundred tequilas!
- On Lindell between Spring and Vandeventer:
- Nadoz Café* ($): European style coffee, deserts, artisan breads, and sandwiches.
 - Chuy's* ($$): Mexican food.
 - Crazy Bowls and Wraps* ($): The name says it all.

